To the Board of Directors of Sustainable Forestry Initiative Inc.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purposes of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Sustainable Forestry Initiative Inc. as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Significant accounting policies followed by the Organization in preparation of its financial statements are summarized below. Preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all significant receivables, payables and other liabilities.

Financial Statement Presentation

In accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets. In addition, the Organization is required to present a statement of cash flows.

Uncertain Tax Positions as Defined in FIN No. 48 (Now Part of ASC 740):

The Organization complies with the accounting standards generally accepted in the United States of America requirement of "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes which prescribes a new threshold for determining when an income tax benefit can be recognized, this requirement is a higher threshold than the one imposed for claiming deductions on income tax returns. This requirement did not have any impact on the Organization's financial statements. The Organization's federal and state income tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities until the expiration of the related statutes of limitations on those tax returns. In general, the federal and state income tax returns have a three year statute of limitations. The Organization would recognize accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax provisions, if any, as part of the income tax provision.

Operating Reserve	$ 1,000,000	$ 900,000
Unrestricted Net Assets – Board Designated at end of year	$ 1,000,000	$ 900,000

Operating Reserve Target and Approval of Use of Operating Reserve

The organizations maintains an operating reserve in order to sustain their long-term viability, execute programmatic activities effectively, uphold legal obligations, and mitigate the effects of business cycles on revenues and expenses. Operating reserves are distinct from prior year carryover/surplus (unspent funds), which are utilized to continue multi-year commitments or new projects.

Based on consideration of the Organization’s mission, structure, current and future commitments, and programmatic activities, the Organization will strive to achieve and maintain an operating reserve equal to three months of core operating expenses, based on a rolling average of the prior two years, plus additional future commitments. The Organization will designate funds to add to the operating reserve with each year’s annual operating budget.

An Operating Reserve is intended for emergency or extraordinary purposes and will be utilized only with prior approval of the Board of Directors. Utilized operating reserve will be replaced as soon as realistically possible.

13. Risks and Uncertainties

The Organization's investments are in various securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. SUSTAINABLE FORESTRY INITIATIVE INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2015 and 2014

14. Fair Value Adjustment To Net Assets

The Organization invests in various funds and is required to disclose the difference in value between the contract value and the fair value of the various funds.

The Organization is invested in various funds whose fair value is equal to the contract value. There is no allocated monetary effect adjustment to the Organization.

15. Fair Value Measurements

Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, provides the framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described as follows:

Level 1 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 Inputs to the valuation methodology include

- quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

SUSTAINABLE FORESTRY INITIATIVE INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2015 and 2014

15. Fair Value Measurements (continued)

Asset Valuation Techniques

Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2015 and 2014.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2015 and 2014.

Certificate of Deposits:

Certain certificates of deposits are valued at the closing price reported in the active market in which the certificate is traded. Other certificates of deposits are valued based on yields currently available on comparable securities of issuers with similar credit ratings. When quoted prices are not available for identical or similar certificates, the certificate is valued under a discounted cash flows approach that maximizes observable inputs, such as current yields of similar instruments, but includes adjustments for certain risks that may not be observable, such as credit and liquidity risks.

16. Tax Status

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Organization and recognize a tax liability if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained under examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Organization has analyzed the tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements. The Organization is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

The Organization complies with the accounting standards generally accepted in the United States of America requirement of "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" which prescribes a new threshold for determining when an income tax benefit can be recognized, this requirement is a higher threshold than the one imposed for claiming deductions on an income tax return. This requirement did not have any impact on the Organization's financial statements.

SUSTAINABLE FORESTRY INITIATIVE INC.

16. Tax Status (continued)

The Organization's federal and state income tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities until the expiration of the related statutes of limitations on those tax returns. In general, the federal and state income tax returns have a six year statute of limitations. The Organization would recognize accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax provisions, if any, as part of the income tax provision.

As of the date of this report the Organization has not been audited by federal or state governments for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014, 2012, 2011, 2010, or 2009.
