PROGRAM SCHEDULE

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

OCTOBER 6 (OPEN TO ALL)

WELCOME AND OPENING REMARKS

3:00 pm to 4:30 pm

Delegates will be welcomed to the conference and to the State of California, and receive an update on the latest progress and future opportunities for the SFI Program.

SPEAKERS

Kathy Abusow - President & CEO, SFI Inc., will provide opening remarks and a retrospective of the SFI Program over the past 20 years.

Herman Fillmore - Language Teacher, Cultural Resource Department, and an elder of the Washoe Tribe of Nevada & California will provide a Tribal welcome.

Craig Blair - Chairman of the SFI Board of Directors and President and CEO, Resource Management Service LLC, will provide opening remarks, and focus on the importance of partnerships.

Ken Pimlott - California State Forester and Director of the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, will highlight the key forest health issues of drought and wildfire, and the role of responsible forest management and community engagement in addressing them.

Bill Street - Chairman of PEFC International, will draw from his expertise working with a range of stakeholders on sustainability issues to provide a perspective on global collaboration and considerations for growing future forests.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Chuck Leavell, Keyboardist for the Rolling Stones and Owner, Charlane Plantation
4:30 pm to 5:15 pm

Chuck Leavell - Keyboardist for The Rolling Stones for over 30 years and respected author, tree farmer and environmentalist. Chuck has recorded and performed with The Allman Brothers Band, Eric Clapton, George Harrison and John Mayer. He and his wife, Rose Lane Leavell, own and manage the multi-award winning tree farm, Charlane Plantation, in Georgia. He will address two essential ingredients for success — stewardship and partnership.

TUESDAY EVENING

SFI FOUNDER'S RECEPTION

5:15 pm – 7:00 pm

Sponsored by: Conservation and Community Sponsors

Mingle with SFI staff, members of the SFI Board of Directors, the SFI External Review Panel, and SFI program supporters to celebrate the SFI Program's 20th anniversary and join us as we recognize the founders of the SFI program. We look forward to celebrating our past, present and future successes. You will also have a chance to meet our conference exhibitors, and learn more about some of the organizations within the SFI community.

HOSPITALITY SUITE

9:00 pm – 11:00 pm

What happens in the hospitality suite, stays in the hospitality suite! Come join the fun.

20 YEARS OF CHANGE AND CONTINUAL IMPROVEMENT

SFI started as an industry-led initiative to promote sustainable forestry practices. Now a fully independent, charitable organization, with a board representing economic, social and environmental sectors equally, SFI is widely regarded as a leader in promoting responsible forestry, conservation and sustainable communities. Similarly, those who use the SFI Standards have grown from just industry users to a diverse group including conservation organizations, community groups, the public sector, Aboriginals, Tribes, universities, and many more.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

OCTOBER 7 (OPEN TO ALL)

GLOBAL SUSTAINABILITY ISSUES AND TRENDS

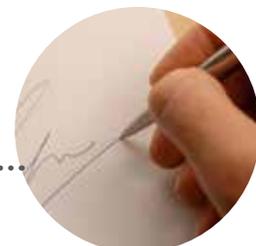

9:00 am to 9:30 am

Sponsored by: Hancock Timber Resource Group

SPEAKER

Malcolm Preston - Global Sustainability Leader, PwC, London, UK, will discuss numerous sustainability issues in a forest supply chain context, including global mega trends, policies, and initiatives that can positively or negatively impact your supply chain.

Growing Our Future

RISK AND REWARD IN FOREST-BASED SUPPLY CHAINS

9:30 am to 10:45 am

Consumers and consequently brandowners have high expectations with regards to the legality and sustainability of the products they buy, be it wood, paper and/or packaging. This session will discuss the risks in forest-based supplies, the tools brandowners are using to add value in their supply chains, and how they weigh the risk and reward in decision-making and customer relations.

SESSION LEADER

Katie Fernholz, Executive Director, Dovetail Partners Inc.

SPEAKERS

Guy Gleysteen - Senior Vice President, Production, Time Inc. and SFI Board Member, will speak from a brand owner perspective on the SFI Forest Partners® Program, as well as provide insights on GreenBlue's value innovation work and the progress being made by the Sustainable Packaging Coalition.

Time Inc.

Sheam Satkuru-Granzella - Vice-Chairman of PEFC Board Directors and Director of the Malaysian Timber Council is a specialist in international trade, with strong experience in legal and policy analysis relating to the timber and forest industries. Sheam will offer her perspective on the role of sustainability in trade of forest products.

John Westling Jr. - Senior Buyer of Paper Goods, Walmart, will provide Walmart's perspective on forest based supply chains, and the tools they use to assess and rate forest products such as the Sustainability Index. Hear about Walmart's new efforts to promote and recognize sustainability leaders in their supply chain.

NETWORKING BREAK AND EXHIBITION

10:45 am to 11:15 am

A GLOBAL REACH

Products that are certified to SFI Standards are sold in

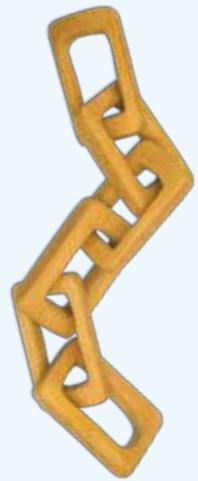

MORE THAN 120 COUNTRIES

AVOIDING DEFORESTATION AND INTEGRATING CORPORATE VALUES INTO GLOBAL SUPPLY CHAINS

11:15 am to 11:45 am

Many global corporate brands have made policy commitments for zero deforestation. Forest certification is recognized as a tool to deliver on such commitments, but forest certification seeks a higher standard than simply the avoidance of deforestation or illegal logging. Join in a discussion on why zero deforestation has emerged as the new hot topic and why organizations like The Forest Trust might be knocking on your door asking supply chain questions that address a range of brandowner values.

SESSION LEADER

Kathy Abusow, President & CEO, SFI Inc.

SPEAKERS

Tobias Webb - Founder of Innovation Forum, builds bridges and understanding between academia, industry, conservation interests and policy makers, and provides a platform to discuss important corporate sustainability issues, like zero net deforestation and avoidance of illegal logging.

Scott Poynton - Founder and Executive Director of The Forest Trust (TFT), promotes supply chain solutions through his work with large brand owners to set policies based on TFT's Value, Transparency, Transformation and Verification model. Hear about TFT's role in advising brandowners on how to address their corporate values throughout their supply chains.

NETWORKING BREAK AND EXHIBITION

11:45 am to 12:00 pm

ANNUAL AWARDS LUNCHEON

12:00 pm to 1:30 pm

Sponsored by: International Paper

SFI Inc. will recognize special achievements during the Annual Awards Luncheon. Winners will be announced for the President's Award, the 17th Annual SFI Implementation Committee Achievement Award, and the Leadership in Conservation Award.

NETWORKING BREAK AND EXHIBITION

1:30 pm to 2:00 pm

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

OCTOBER 7 (OPEN TO ALL)

FOREST CONSERVATION MEETS THE REAL WORLD – HOW SFI IS FORGING THE FUTURE OF FOREST CONSERVATION IN KEY LANDSCAPES TODAY

2:00 pm to 3:15 pm

Sponsored by: Georgia-Pacific

Beyond the research requirements of the SFI Standards, SFI Program Participants and partners engage in conservation initiatives and collaborate with globally recognized conservation organizations. Learn how SFI's conservation impact is growing, how SFI will measure that impact, and about cutting edge collaborations that are stretching the bounds of traditional conservation to ensure the health and vitality of our future forest.

SESSION LEADER

Paul Trianosky, Vice President, Conservation and External Affairs, SFI Inc.

SPEAKER

Larry Selzer - President and CEO, The Conservation

Fund, will speak about the first large landscape-level model for re-establishing and conserving longleaf pine habitat on privately-owned land. Learn how this 205,000 acre sustainable working forest across Alabama and Florida will address the dual benefits of environmental and economic outcomes of forest certification.

THE CONSERVATION FUND

SESSION LEADER

Andrew de Vries, Vice President, Conservation and Indigenous Relations, SFI Inc.

SPEAKERS

George Fenwick - President, American Bird Conservancy, will discuss how ABC is actively engaging forest managers across North America to ensure bird habitat recommendations are shaped by the practical aspects of sustainable forest management.

Gordon Stenhouse - Adjunct Professor, University of Saskatchewan, a world leading bear researcher, will speak about how he is assisting SFI Program Participants with integrating the needs of caribou and grizzly bear in the landscape of the western boreal forest.

MARKET RELEVANCE

THE SFI LOGO IS RECOGNIZED AND UNDERSTOOD BY MORE PEOPLE THAN ANY OTHER FOREST CERTIFICATION LOGO, ACCORDING TO A 2015 NATURAL MARKETING INSTITUTE SURVEY.

THE MARKET RELEVANCY OF SFI

3:15 pm to 3:30 pm

Hear from SFI on the latest trends: from forest certification, to media coverage, to consumer research around labeling. Find out how your company can leverage these upward shifts to convey the importance of SFI certification in your supply chain.

SPEAKER

Jason Metnick, Senior Vice President, Customer Outreach, SFI Inc.

SFI IMPLEMENTATION COMMITTEES – MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN LOCAL COMMUNITIES

3:30 pm to 4:30 pm

Sponsored by: California SFI Implementation Committee

SFI Implementation Committees (SICs) are our strongest asset when it comes to community leadership. This grassroots network works with local conservation groups, government agencies, forestry and professional associations, landowner groups and many others to conduct landowner outreach and community engagement. This panel will celebrate three SICs whose recent projects go above and beyond the ordinary.

SESSION LEADER

Elizabeth Woodworth, Vice President, Communications and Community Engagement, SFI Inc.

SPEAKERS

Paul Lyskava - Pennsylvania SFI Implementation Committee, will discuss the committee’s outreach to high school students on logger training. Hear how this next generation of potential loggers and natural resource professionals is learning about the benefits of choosing a career in sustainable forestry.

Anna Kendall - Mississippi SFI Implementation Committee, will discuss the committee’s annual tour of SFI certified forestlands for Mississippi State University architecture students, to learn about the benefits of sustainable forest products in green building design.

Pat Sirois - Maine SFI Implementation Committee, will discuss a partnership with Pine Tree Camp, a summer camp for Maine children and adults with disabilities, to help open seven new camper cabins with materials donated by the Maine SFI Program Participants. Also hear how the committee is bringing together stakeholders to protect habitats for Atlantic salmon and native brook trout through the Fisheries Improvement Network.

THURSDAY MORNING

OCTOBER 8 (OPEN TO ALL)

NETWORKING BREAKFAST

7:30 am to 9:00 am

FROM LOCAL TO GLOBAL

8:30 am to 9:00 am

Sponsored by: Programme for the Endorsement of Forest Certification (PEFC)

Hear from important SFI Inc. partners, American Tree Farm System and Programme for the Endorsement of Forest Certification, on addressing challenges and key opportunities to grow certification from the local to the global level.

SPEAKERS

Tom Martin - President and CEO, American Forest Foundation, will discuss AFF's efforts to help family forest owners play a key local role in protecting and enhancing wildlife habitat and other forest benefits, while at the same time contributing to the growing need for sustainable wood supplies through tools including ATFS certification. Tom will also highlight AFF's innovative methods to reach and engage woodland owners.

Ben Gunneberg - Secretary General, PEFC, will provide a global perspective about future innovation challenges to certification and highlight critical issues that the certification movement will need to address, globally and locally, including carbon and the role of intensive forest management.

FUTURE FORESTS THROUGH AN ECONOMIC LENS

9:00 am to 9:30 am

More than 20 years ago, the UN Earth Summit drew global attention to the need to sustainably manage our forests. As we celebrate 20 years of the SFI program, we are excited to look ahead to what the future holds for forests.

SPEAKER

Pete Stewart - President and CEO, Forest2Market, will address the future of the forest sector, emerging markets affecting the forestry industry and wood supply, and demand drivers in the North American forest products industry.

NETWORKING BREAK AND EXHIBITION

9:30 am to 10:15 am

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Michael Green, MGA | Michael Green Architecture

10:15 am to 11:00 am

Michael Green will highlight innovation in architecture, wood skyscrapers, and the future of tall wood buildings. Tall wood projects are being proposed and completed around the world, demonstrating successful applications of engineered wood and mass timber technologies. Michael will share the importance of innovative design, research, testing, and responsible forest management in successfully shifting tall wood buildings into mainstream urban architecture.
